

Preschool Development Grant Birth to Five (PDG B-5)

Governor Michael Parson's Goal	A future-ready workforce in Missouri
State Goal	Show Me Success: Improving Lives Through Education
PDG B-5 Goal	Ready for School: Ready Children, Ready Families, Ready Schools, Ready Communities

Inputs		Activities	Outputs	Outcomes
Child-Serving Agency Partners	Other Supporting Entities	Child Care Aware® of Missouri	Create a shared website and coordinated enrollment system	Increase the number of families accessing the early childhood system	Short Term Families are learning about child development, building authentic relationships with professionals and engaging in activities with their child Professionals promote positive early learning experiences that build smooth transitions Professionals consistently use best practices with children and families
		CTF	Establish regional hubs	Increase the number of early childhood professionals in the registry
		CBEC	Create a shared professional registry
		DHEWD	Develop agreed-upon best practices	Increase the number of early childhood professionals trained in best practices
		DOLIR	Develop and measure school readiness indicators	Increase the number of qualified early childhood professionals
		MERIC			Long Term An ECIDS to monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of early childhood services A coordinated statewide early childhood system All children are ready for school A stronger workforce in every community
		RPDC	Create an Early Childhood Integrated Data System (ECIDS)	Increase the number of children who are safe, healthy and learning
		State Universities			